

Grant Oversight and Regulatory Compliance

Karyn M. Warsow is a doctoral candidate at the Johns Hopkins Bloomberg School of Public Health in the department of Health Policy Management and Leadership. Funding of the GBC TIGER grant will serve as her doctoral dissertation. Ms. Warsow has over 25 years of experience in conducting federally funded research according to applicable regulatory guidelines with expertise in program development, strategic management, monitoring and evaluation, impact analysis and regulatory compliance. Ms. Warsow will function as the Research Director for the Michigan Research and Rural Traffic Safety Program, which she has developed, in addition to administrative oversight of all GBC TIGER grant activities.
