

Miles Ludlow (left) charms a lady judge during the knee contest.

Kris Church

1975

725 love free breakfast on Alpenstrasse

A pancake and sausage breakfast was held on the Alpenstrasse, with free food as long as the food lasted. Hungry eaters to take advantage of the free breakfast numbered 725.

The Michigan oil and gas industry in general, and Shell Oil Co. and Michigan Consolidated Gas Co. in particular, were saluted at the Alpenfest Honors Luncheon.

Kristen Church, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Church, won the Alpenfest Queen's Pageant. Runner-up was Karen Engel.

Glen's Market took the prize for the best overall float with their "Old woman in a shoe" creation.

First place in the pet parade was won by Casey Gregory for his kitty buggy trimmed with flowers.

The July 24 issue of the Herald Times reported that nearly 80 contestants competed for honors in the Second Annual Alpenfest Tennis Tournament.

All three championships were awarded to non-Gaylord residents.

This Page Courtesy Of

Otsego County Abstract Co.

120 East Main Gaylord 732-5765

Alpine Kirby Company

1348 Old 27 South Gaylord 732-0808