

A.B. Culliton, Dray Line.

“Baldy” Culliton, so known by every man, woman and child in Gaylord, with his dray and team of white horses is a familiar sight on the streets. He is a Canadian by birth and a native of Bruce, Ont.; came to Gaylord in 1885 when the country was still in a primitive state and has grown up with the town. At present he is running two drays and has a good business. He has charge of the American Express Company’s business here. A picture of his team and dray is shown herewith. It was taken by Mr. M. Laur in front of his gallery just after an immense load of paper for this special edition had been unloaded at the Herald Office.
